L.B. FOSTER COMPANY

PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of L.B. Foster Company (the "Company") for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held May 26, 2004 and at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement, the enclosed form of proxy and the Company's 2003 Annual Report were mailed to stockholders on or about April 22, 2004. Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked at any time before its use by written notice of revocation delivered to the Company at its principal executive offices, 415 Holiday Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15220, attention: Secretary, or by attendance at the meeting and voting in person.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the record holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum. At the close of business on March 29, 2004, the record date for entitlement to vote at the meeting ("Record Date"), there were 9,899,520 shares of common stock outstanding. A quorum will therefore require the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least 4,949,761 shares. Where a stockholder's proxy or ballot indicates that no vote is to be cast on a particular matter (including broker non-votes) the shares of such stockholder are nevertheless counted as being present at the meeting for the purposes of the vote on that matter.

Only holders of record of the common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or at any adjournment thereof. Such stockholders will have one vote for each share held on that date. The common stock does not have cumulative voting rights. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting.

If the enclosed form of proxy is properly executed and returned, it will be voted as directed. If no directions are given, the proxy will be voted FOR the election as directors of the six nominees named herein. With respect to all matters which the Company did not have written notice of on or before February 27, 2004, the proxy confers discretionary authority to vote on such matters to Lee B. Foster II, Chairman of the Board and Stan L. Hasselbusch, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Officers or employees of the Company may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, e-mail or facsimile. The Company does not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but under arrangements made with brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy material to the beneficial owners of shares held by them, the Company may reimburse them for their expenses.

However, should any of such persons be unavailable for election, the proxies (except for proxies that withhold authority to vote for directors) will be voted for such substitute nominee or nominees as may be chosen by the Board of Directors, or the number of directors may be reduced by appropriate action of the Board.

Board and Committee Meetings

The Board of Directors held 7 meetings during 2003. Each nominee who was a director during 2003 attended more than seventy-five percent of the total number of meetings held during 2003 by the Board of Directors and the committees of the Board on which he or she served.

Massman and Rackoff. Messrs. Puth, Rackoff, Massman and Ms. Owen are “independent” under the National Association of Securities Dealers’ listing standards and the applicable SEC rules.

The Audit Committee, which held 4 meetings during 2003, is responsible for overseeing, with the independent auditors and management, the work and findings of the auditors, as well as the effectiveness of the Company’s internal auditing department, the adequacy of the Company’s internal controls and the accounting principles employed in financial reporting. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the appointment and compensation of the independent auditors. The Board of Directors has designated Diane B. Owen as the Audit Committee “financial expert” under applicable SEC rules. Certain of Ms. Owen’s qualifications as a “financial expert” are included in her biographical data on page 4 of this Proxy Statement.

The Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee, which met on 5 occasions in 2003, is responsible for reviewing and recommending for approval significant employee benefit programs, recommending for approval officer compensation, reviewing and recommending for approval certain organizational changes and granting stock options. The Committee Charter is available on the Company’s website (www.lbfoster.com).

Nomination of Directors

The Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee (the “Committee”) endeavors to create a Board of Directors consisting of individuals who are financially literate and whose experiences and backgrounds will enable the Board of Directors to provide meaningful counsel to and oversight of management. The Committee shall recommend, to the full Board, nominees who will create or maintain a Board of Directors that satisfies applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

In selecting nominees for election to the Board of Directors, the Committee will consider, among others, submissions from shareholders. A shareholder wishing to recommend a prospective nominee for the Board may notify the Corporation’s Secretary or any member of the Committee in writing and provide whatever supporting material the shareholder considers appropriate. Submissions should be sent to the Company’s principal executive offices, 415 Holiday Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15220, Attn: Secretary.

Directors’ Compensation

Effective May 13, 2003, the base annual fee of the Chairperson of the Audit Committee was increased from $9,500 to $16,500 and the base annual fee of the Chairperson of the Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee was increased from $7,000 to $16,500.

In addition, the base annual fees of the other outside directors were increased from $7,000 to $14,000. Outside directors also receive $1,000 for each board meeting attended and $500 for each committee meeting attended. Outside directors receive $500 for participating in telephonic Board or Committee meetings. Management directors receive no separate compensation for their services as directors.

Each outside director automatically is awarded annually a non-qualified option to acquire up to 5,000 shares of the Company’s common stock after the annual shareholders’ meeting. Following the annual meeting in 2003 Messrs. Massman, Rackoff, Puth and Ms. Owen were each awarded an option to acquire up to 5,000 shares of the Company’s common stock at $4.23 per share.

Pursuant to the Outside Directors’ Stock Award Plan, approved at the 2003 Annual Shareholders’ Meeting, each outside director receives 2,500 shares of restricted Company common stock on each date such outside director is elected or re-elected at an annual shareholders’ meeting. Messrs. Massman, Rackoff, Puth and Ms. Owen were each awarded 2,500 shares of restricted Company stock following the 2003 Annual Shareholders' Meeting and each will receive an additional 2,500 shares upon being re-elected at the 2004 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholder Meeting Attendance

The Company's directors regularly have attended shareholders' meetings without a formal policy on directors' attendance and the Company does not believe that a formal policy is required. All of the Company's directors attended the 2003 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Communications to Directors

Shareholders and other parties interested in communicating directly with the Chairman of the Board or with the non-managerial directors as a group may do so by writing to L.B. Foster Company, 415 Holiday Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15220, Attn: Chairman of the Board or Attn: Outside Directors. The Secretary of the Company shall review all such correspondence and shall regularly forward to the Board a summary of all such correspondence and copies of all correspondence that, in the opinion of the Secretary, deal with the functions of the Board or committees thereof or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by the Company that is addressed to members of the Board and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters are directed to the Company's internal audit department and handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters.

Independent Auditors

Ernst & Young LLP's aggregate fees (including out-of-pocket expenses) billed for fiscal 2003 and 2002 for each of the following categories of services are set forth below:

	2003	2002
Audit fees (includes audits and reviews of the Company's fiscal 2003 and 2002 financial statements)	$173,995	$155,970
Audit-related fees (primarily audits of the Company's various employee benefit plans)	$ 18,700	$ 33,400
Tax fees (federal and state)	$ 80,297	$ 89,141
All other fees	—	—

The Audit Committee reviews summaries of services provided by Ernst & Young LLP and the related fees and has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence. All services are approved by the Audit Committee.

Ernst & Young LLP has served as the Company's independent auditor since 1990 and the Audit Committee anticipates that Ernst & Young LLP will be so appointed for 2004. The Audit Committee currently is evaluating Ernst & Young LLP's fee proposals for the 2004 audit and, accordingly, has not yet appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2004. Since the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for the appointment of the Company's independent auditors, the Company is not seeking shareholder approval of the independent auditors' appointment.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Pursuant to its charter, the Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation and retention of the Company's independent auditors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2003. The Committee's charter, as amended on March 12, 2004, is attached hereto as Exhibit A and is also available on the Company's website (www.lbfoster.com). The Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 2003.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and for the financial reporting process. With respect to 2003, management advised the Committee that all annual and quarterly financial statements reviewed by the Committee had been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Committee met and held discussions with Ernst & Young LLP, who are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and for issuing a report thereon, regarding the audited financial statements, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and Ernst & Young LLP's judgment regarding these matters. The Committee also discussed matters required to be discussed pursuant to applicable auditing standards. Pursuant to Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committee(s)), the Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board. The Committee considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence and concluded that Ernst & Young LLP's independence had not been impaired. The Committee also reviewed with Ernst & Young LLP its audit and non-audit fees.

The Committee discussed with the Company's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Committee discussed the results of Ernst & Young LLP's quarterly review procedures with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Controller and with Ernst & Young LLP prior to the Company's release of quarterly financial information.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

COMPENSATION, NOMINATION AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In December, 2003, the former Personnel and Compensation Committee and the former Option Committee of the Board of Directors were consolidated into the Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee (the "Compensation Committee"), which has responsibilities related to compensation, corporate governance and the nomination of directors. The Compensation Committee is composed of independent directors and its responsibilities include recommending to the Board of Directors the compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee's recommendations are then approved by the full Board. This report is submitted by Messrs. Massman, Puth and Rackoff in their capacity as the Compensation Committee, and addresses the Company's compensation policies for 2003 as they were generally applicable to the Company's executive officers and as they were specifically applicable to Mr. Hasselbusch.

COMPENSATION POLICIES REGARDING EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Compensation Committee's policies are designed to enable the Company to attract and retain qualified executives and to provide incentives for the achievement of the Company's annual and long-term performance goals. The vehicles for compensating and motivating executive officers include cash compensation, stock awards, stock options, participation in a 401(k) plan, a supplemental executive retirement plan and other benefits. The Company has not established a policy with regard to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, since the Company has not and does not anticipate paying compensation in excess of $1 million per annum to any employee.

Cash Compensation

Each year the Company obtains survey data in order to determine the competitiveness of its pay structure for senior management. The surveys considered in determining the pay scales for 2003 were published by Watson Wyatt Data Services and covered companies that were manufacturers with average sales of up to $450 million including the following groups, sectors, or industries: Durable Goods, Fabricated Metal Products, Building Materials, All Manufacturers, Engineering Services, Non-Manufacturing and/or Other Services.

The Company uses survey data only to establish guidelines for its decisions on executive compensation. Specific decisions are then made largely on subjective assessments of the officer's performance, the importance of the officer's position and the Company's overall performance. The Company generally reviews officers for merit increases at 15 month intervals, with the normal target for increases being approximately 3.0% - 3.75%.

During 2003, the Company also maintained an Incentive Compensation Plan to provide incentives and rewards for employees. Because the Company had performed relatively well in 2003 under difficult market conditions and because bonuses had not been paid under the Plan for 2001 and 2002, the Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved, amending the Incentive Compensation Plan by reducing the amount of pre-tax profit required for the payment of bonuses under the Plan. Bonuses for officers ranged from 3.8% to 14.8% of the respective recipients' base salary.

Bonuses paid to Messrs. Hasselbusch, Foster, Bloem, Fisher and Russo are included in the Summary Compensation Plan.

Many of the companies included in the peer group used to compare shareholder returns are substantially larger than the Company and do not necessarily represent the Company's most direct competition for executive talent. Consequently, the survey data used by the Compensation Committee does not correspond to the peer group index in the five-year Total Return graph included in the proxy statement.

Stock Option Plans

The Company's 1985 Long-Term Incentive Plan as Amended and Restated and the 1998 Long-Term Incentive Plan as Amended and Restated (the "Plans") authorize the award of stock options and stock appreciation rights ("SAR's") to officers, directors and key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Plans are designed to motivate participants by providing them with a direct, financial interest in the long-term performance of the Company. The Compensation Committee determines the participants and their awards. The purchase price of optioned shares must be at least the fair market value of the common stock on the date the option is granted, and the term of options may not exceed ten (10) years. Both "incentive stock options" and "non-qualified stock options" may be awarded under the Plans. Stock appreciation rights may be awarded at any time prior to six months before the stock option's expiration date and represent the right to receive payment of an amount not exceeding the amount by which the average of the reported high and low sales prices of the Company's common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the date of exercise of the SAR exceeds the option exercise price. The exercise of a SAR cancels the related stock option. In determining the number of options to award a participant, the Compensation Committee generally takes into account, among other factors, the number of options previously awarded to the participant. No options were granted to Messrs. Hasselbusch, Foster, Bloem, Russo or Fisher during 2003.

Retirement Plan

The Company maintains the L. B. Foster Company Voluntary Investment Plan, a salary reduction plan qualifying under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, covering all salaried employees. Eligible participants may contribute up to 41% (30% maximum on a pre-tax basis and 11% maximum on an after-tax basis, subject to IRS limitations) of their compensation to the Plan. The Plan calls for the Company to contribute 1% of the employee's compensation plus $.50 for each $1.00 contributed by the employee, subject to a maximum of from 4% to 6% of the employee's compensation, based on the years of service. Based upon the Company's financial performance against predetermined criteria, the Company may contribute an additional $.50 for each $1.00 so contributed. The Company also may make additional discretionary contributions to the Plan. Company contributions vest upon completion of three (3) years of service. The Company's contributions for 2003 to the Voluntary Investment Plan for Messrs. Hasselbusch, Foster, Bloem, Fisher and Russo are included in the Summary Compensation Table. The Company also maintains a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan under which executive officers may accrue benefits which approximate benefits unavailable under the Voluntary Investment Plan because of Internal Revenue Code limitations.

Other Compensation Plans

At various times in the past, the Company has adopted certain broad-based employee benefit plans in which executive officers have been permitted to participate and has adopted certain executive officer leased vehicle, life and health insurance programs. The incremental cost to the Company of the executive officers' benefits provided under these programs for Messrs. Hasselbusch, Foster, Bloem, Fisher and Russo are included in the Summary Compensation Table, if such benefits exceeded 10% of named officer's salary and bonus for the year. Benefits under these plans are not directly or indirectly tied to Company performance.

MR. HASSELBUSCH'S 2003 COMPENSATION

Mr. Hasselbusch's annual base salary was increased, after an interval of 15 months, from $300,000 to $311,250 on April 1, 2003, which increase was within the Company's target range for executive officers. Mr. Hasselbusch also received a $35,000 bonus under the 2003 Incentive Compensation Plan, based upon the Company's attainment of a specific level of pre-tax income. Mr. Hasselbusch is eligible to participate in the same executive compensation plans as are available to other executive officers.

Consistent with the Compensation Committee's general practice, there was no special attempt to set Mr. Hasselbusch's compensation in any particular relationship to the compensation survey data.

CHARTERL.B. Foster Company*Audit Committee of the Board of Directors*I. Purpose

The Audit Committee's primary function is to fulfill its oversight responsibilities by reviewing: the Corporation's audited financial reports and interim financial reports; the Corporation's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting and legal compliance that management and the Board have established; and the Corporation's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes. The Audit Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are:

- Overseeing that management has established and maintained the Corporation's accounting and financial reporting process and internal control system to insure the reliability and integrity of the Corporation's financial reporting and disclosure practices.
- Overseeing that management has established and maintained processes to assure the quality and effectiveness of both its independent public accountants and internal auditor(s).
- Overseeing the audit of the Corporation's financial statements.
- Providing an open avenue of communication among the independent public accountants, financial and senior management, the internal auditing department and the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee will fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter. As used herein, the term "independent public accountants" shall refer to the independent public accountants retained by the Company for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the Company's financial statements for either:

- the period covered by any financial statement; or
- the period of the engagement to audit or review the Corporation's financial statements or to prepare a report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

II. Composition

The Audit Committee shall consist of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall be independent directors, except under the limited circumstances set forth below, and free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee. The term "independent director" in this Section II shall have the meaning set forth both in the NASD rules pertaining to Audit Committee requirements, as from time to time amended, and shall also mean that each independent director may not accept any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fees from or by affiliation with the Corporation, other than as a Board or committee member. All members of the Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices and be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement.

In addition, the Audit Committee may avail itself of any cure period if, for reasons set forth in applicable NASD Rules, the Audit Committee does not comply with applicable requirements on the composition of the Audit Committee.

One director who is not independent and meets the criteria set forth in Section 10A(m)(3) of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder, and is not an officer, an employee, nor a Family Member (as defined in applicable NASD Rules) of an officer or an employee may be appointed to the Audit Committee if the Board of Directors, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Audit Committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and the Board of Directors discloses in the next annual proxy statement the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination.

The Committee shall include at least one member who, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, is a financial expert under the standards established by the Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable NASD Rules.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual organizational meeting of the Board or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless the Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. A member of the Committee shall immediately resign from the Committee if he should cease to be an independent director and his successor shall be selected by the full Board, unless one of the limited exceptions set forth above to the general requirements applicable to the composition of the Audit Committee is applicable.

III. Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least four times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. Special meetings may be called by either the Chairman of the Board or the Chairman of the Committee. In order to foster open communication, the Committee shall meet periodically with management and the independent public accountants in separate executive sessions. In addition, the Committee, or at least its Chair shall meet with the independent public accountants and management quarterly to review the Corporation's interim financial statements.

- the aggregate fees for all non-audit services are not more than five percent of total fees paid to the independent public accountants during the fiscal year in which the non-audit services are provided;
- the service was not initially recognized by the Corporation as a non-audit service;
- the service is promptly brought to the attention of the Audit Committee; and
- the Audit Committee (or one or more members of the Audit Committee who are members of the Board of Directors to whom authority to grant such approvals has been delegated by the Audit Committee) approves the activity prior to the conclusion of the audit.

This is the responsibility of management and the independent public accountants. The Audit Committee also does not have the duty to ensure compliance with laws and regulations or any code of conduct applicable to the Corporation or its employees.
